Study Abroad at the College of Veterinary Medicine in Padova University Summer 2014

Thanks to the funds allocated by the University of Padova (Promozione della Mobilità e Internazionalizzazione 2013) and the support provided by the BCA and MAPS Departments, we are able to carry on the initiative with the American students from the Texas A&M University which started years ago with a project called: Study Abroad at the College of Veterinary Medicine, University of Padova – Veterinary International Leadership Program (VILP program).

The current program is split in two years for Italian and American students; a Workshop will be arranged in Italy while a Clinical Training will be organised in Texas.

Summer 2014: Workshop in Food Safety and Public Health (it will start on the 23rd of June 2014 in Legnaro, at the Agripolis Campus); the program is described below.

Summer 2015: Clinical Rotations (Texas A&M University, July 2015); program under revision.
