

Supporting Letter

To the esteemed University of Padua,

We refer to the Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Programme “Erasmus Mundus Joint Master in Food, Nutrition and Health (FOOD-H)”, coordinated by the University of Padua, Italy. We have reviewed with great interest the objectives and structure of the Programme, which is designed to train a new generation of highly qualified professionals capable of addressing global challenges in the fields of food science, nutrition, and health. In continuity with our previous support for the Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Programme “Food Science and Technology to Nourish Human Health (FOOD-H)”, which we endorsed on 27 January 2025, we are pleased to confirm our willingness to consider our support to this new edition, presented as an evolution and spin-off of the earlier Programme.

The undersigned, Cereal Docks S.p.A., a company actively engaged in the oilseed and plant protein supply chains, hereby expresses its non-binding support for the FOOD-H programme. We believe the initiative is of significant relevance to fostering innovation, knowledge transfer, and capacity building in the food science and technology sectors.

As a supporting partner, Cereal Docks S.p.A. agrees, in a non-binding capacity, to contribute to the programme in the following ways:

- Hosting students participating in the FOOD-H programme during their 4th semester for internships and thesis development;
- Providing guest lecturers to contribute to the teaching activities of the programme, leveraging our expertise in relevant fields.

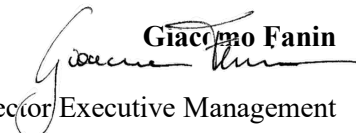

It is understood that this letter constitutes a non-binding expression of support from Cereal Docks S.p.A.; therefore, it is not intended to create, nor does it create, any legally binding obligation for Cereal Docks S.p.A. None of the contents herein shall give rise to any legally enforceable obligations for Cereal Docks S.p.A. By signing this letter, Cereal Docks S.p.A. assumes no liability towards the University of Padua or the FOOD-H programme in the event of its non-participation in any activities outlined above.

We remain at your disposal for any further discussion or clarification regarding this collaboration.

Yours sincerely,
