

Letter of Support - FOOD-H

Lyon, 16 January 2025

I, the undersigned, Agnès Giboreau, representing the Institut Lyfe Research Center, do hereby confirm that:

the Institut Lyfe Research Center is pleased to act as associated partner in the application for the Erasmus Mundus Joint Master in Food, Nutrition and Health (FOOD-H)” coordinated by the University of Padua, Italy.

As an associated partner, the Institut Lyfe Research Center agrees to:

- host students participating in FOOD-H during their 4th semester (internship and thesis)
- contribute to the overall dissemination of the programme by both marketing the programme through institutional channels and promoting its results over time.
- contribute, through guest lecturers, to part of the programme teaching activities.
- Propose specific projects to be managed by the student while at the research center, contributing to initiatives aiming at better understanding and/or proposing or testing solution to allow a healthy and sustainable diets to all

I will be the contact person for this partnership.

Best regards,

Agnès Giboreau
